

Industrial Engineers

ANSGER JACOB

Ansgar Jacob studied Industrial Engineering at the Universität Karlsruhe (TH), Germany, and received his diploma degree “Diplom Wirtschaftsingenieur” (M.Sc. in Industrial Engineering) in November 2002. After his studies he worked as a consultant in business process and IT optimization in the financial sector for 2 years. Currently he is PhD student and research assistant at the Information Systems Institute 2 at Universität Hohenheim. In his research he addresses the use of context and sensor technologies in supply chains. He is currently involved in the research project IT FoodTrace funded by the German Federal Ministry for Education and Research, which targets the tracking and tracing in meat supply chains.
